BIO

Evin Felix, maiden name Evin Schuler, grew up in Prairie Village, Kansas. Daughter to an illustrator and an art teacher, Evin was immersed in art from a young age. Her first oil painting at the age of eight marked the beginning of her lifelong journey as an oil painter. Evin received her BFA from KU in 2006. She married in 2009, and now spends much of her time raising 2 sons: Oliver (b. 2011) and Zeke (b. 2014). Evin now works out of her home studio on private commissions and on creative whim.

STATEMENT

Evin finds inspiration everywhere. In a time when we are bombarded with images of ugliness, violence, and destruction, her goal as an artist is to depict the natural, understated beauty that still exists in our world. Many of her paintings are renderings of photos that she has taken at home and abroad. Whether it's a bursting succulent, a boat resting calmly on a glassy sea or a quiet expansive landscape, Evin strives to artfully depict feelings of peace and beauty in her work.
