2002 Received my BFA in Visual Communications, emphasis in Graphic Design, from Southwest Missouri State University. Worked for an Advertising Agency that created print and web materials for Ophthalmologists and Plastic Surgeons.

2003 Started my own Design Firm, working for a wide variety of clients in branding and marketing.

2003 Hired as a Creative Director for a Financial Literacy company.

2008 Stepped back from Design to focus on being a full-time Mom.

2012 Designed “h4” ... the logo that would eventually inspire my ministry.

2017 Founded Faithfull by Design, a ministry fusing my passion for Art with my hunger for creating Social Justice. I created jewelry and apparel with the “h4” logo (hunger 4 her, home, healing, help, happiness). Upon selling these items, I donated my proceeds to local organizations fighting sex trafficking.

2019 Fell head-over-heels in love with Alcohol Ink Painting, and started selling prints, note cards and bookmarks with my artwork.

2021 Began hosting “Art & Awareness” events such as film screenings, events with survivors, and book studies.

2022 Started producing apparel and home decor with my vibrant and unique artwork.
